4. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S WORKING DURING THE YEAR AND REVIEW OF ITS PROGRAMME INITIATIVES:

AHEAD Initiatives is in its 16th year and it has successfully completed 11 projects impacting on food and nutritional security of the poorest of the poor families, education of children and livelihoods. We worked across Bengal and a few areas in Odisha and Jharkhand as well. The success of our Food Security and Education projects led to several phases being sanctioned by CISU, our Danish primary donor, something which is not common among the NGOs they support worldwide. This relationship has presently reached a new phase, where instead of project-based transactional support to the community, we have embarked upon a 'programme', where the focus is on empowering the communities in their transformational journey in development. The CSR grant from Embee Software Private Limited continued in 2024-25. AHEAD oversees SSMF's project, a village based initiative to support a local school. It is a trust funded by Late Shri Rathnadeep De and his family.

The following paragraphs contain a brief description of the activities undertaken by AHEAD Initiatives in 2024-25 financial year.

AHEAD Initiatives

A. Food Sovereignty

'Food Sovereignty' emerged as the key element in AHEAD Initiative's programme approach, which was put to operation in the year under report. This was not merely an extension of the 'food security' project, which AHEAD implemented in select geographies. It evolved as a comprehensive approach to engage with food, farming and ecology so that communities can take initiatives to localize the food system. Following the preparatory activities, an internal workshop in February 2024, a partners' meet and study circles for the area supervisors and the community resource organisers in March 2024, field level activities commenced in April 2025. Shri Angshuman Das, a professional passionate thinker on agro-ecology and community-based natural resource management along with several other areas of environment-sensitive community development, was inducted as the Principal Consultant. There followed a series of activities, in the capacity building and community mobilisation spaces. The two tables below provide a gist of the activities in this domain:

The CROs up to March have been able to facilitate the community confluence by using multiple tools, especially from 1 to 4 (listed below)

2. 10 Food Group
3. Dietary Diversity Scoring

4. Cutting Grafting
5. Seed Conservation Process

Apart from these the CROs have got training on Pulses Cultivation and preparing for initiating Safe Food Talk in the ICDS and communities.

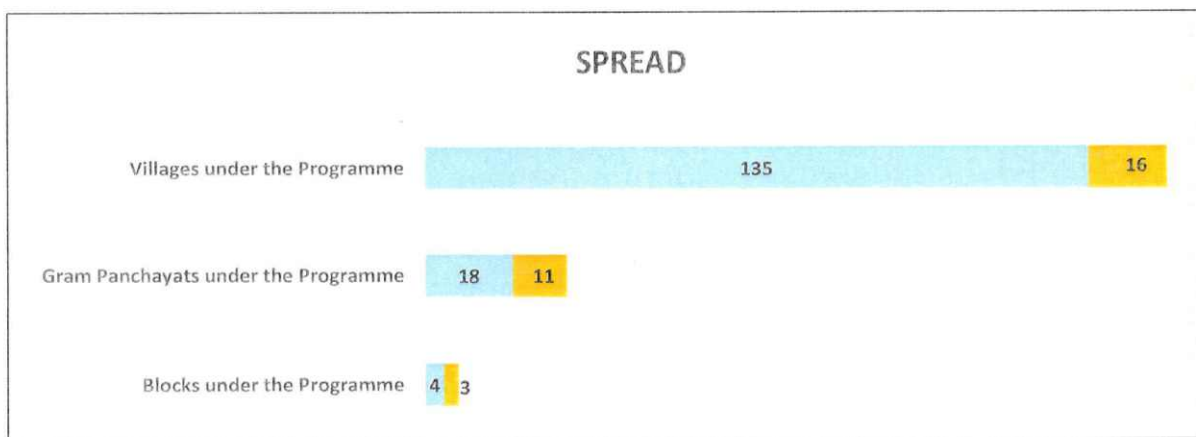

B. Eco Livelihood

In the 'Programme', one of the major components was eco-livelihoods. Here, we endeavor to develop additional livelihood options for the rural people, especially youth through utilization of available cultivated and uncultivated resources, honing of traditional skills and looking for backward and forward linkages for the produce in the local market. Localization is the key theme over here: localized resources, localized skills, localized inputs, localized markets and over and above, doing no harm to the local nature. In 2024-25 financial year, the initiative spread over 16 villages in 9 gram sansads covering the three 'programme' blocks, i.e., Hingalganj, Onda and Kusumi.

C. Inter-generational Lifelong Learning

Inter-generational life-long learning has been conceptualized for three different sets of activities for three different age-group of people. For the pre-primary and primary students or boys and girls of that age group an open learning environment has been provided. To harness the energy of the adolescents, Kishor-Kishori Vahini has been conceptualized and there have been efforts to learn from traditional knowledge and traditional wisdom of the elders, Elders Councils have been formed.

C.1 OLC: A small space with larger thinking

As a part of AHEAD's initiatives in promoting inter-generational lifelong learning (IGLL), Open Learning Centres (Srijangan) have been established in 15 villages of the three blocks where AHEAD is continuing its programme intervention, 5 each in Hingalganj, Kusumi and Onda blocks. The fundamental objectives of Open Learning Centres are:

- 1) To build a happiness-driven self-designed learning model for the holistic development of children,
- 2) to ignite the inner motivation/self-initiative, socio-emotional well-being, creativity, self-discipline, self-confidence, curiosity, and leadership of the learners,
- 3) to provide a platform for learners to build fundamental academic and practical skills, social entrepreneurship and volunteerism attitudes and values, and networks for the real world.

During the year under report, external resource persons, Mrs. Sudeshna Sinha, Mrs. Malini Mukherjee (both on FLN, especially on language development), Mrs. Swapna Das (on performing arts and craft-based activities), Mr. Biswajit Chitrakar and Mr. Gopal Mondal (both on applied mathematics) and DRCSC as an organisation provided extensive training and handholding support to the staff of AHEAD and the local CSOs. They provided considerable support to the field activities during their occasional visits to the field.

Apart from expert support, following is a brief description of the activities where the OLC children were creatively engaged in 2024-25:

Block	Activity set-1	Activity set-2	Activity set-3	Activity set 4	Activity set 4
Hingalganj	Plantation by using mangrove seed balls made by the children	Understanding the river ecosystem	Application of mathematics in daily life and learning math from nature	Performing arts session, including story development and story telling	Creative communication on environmental issues
Onda	Only preparatory activities till March 2025 and actual field activities since April 2025
Kusumi	Orientation programme	10 facilitators of the OLCs trained	100 children started attending the OLCs since Sept. 2024	FLN sessions, art and craft sessions, exercise on performing art

During this period the OLC team has developed many TLMs (Teaching Learning Materials), models and IECs on language development, preliminary mathematical skill development, applied mathematics and also on Environment. There are so many charts, posters, slogans and books developed by the

AHEAD Initiatives

OLC children with some relevant sustainable models. Here is a link on a short film developed on RIVER activities done by the OLC children of the Sundarbans.

C.2 Kishor Kishori Bahini (KKB)

AHEAD Initiative's second level of intervention in the IGLL is for the adolescent groups. The idea put to practice was to develop an army of adolescents, both boys and girls and creatively use the institutions (Kishor-Kishori Bahini or KKB) for collective learning, skilling and action. The following graph provides data on the status of KKB till 31 March 2025:

In the KKBs, there have been a series of activities in order to collectivise the young adults/ adolescents and develop their life skills. In its development stage, following set of activities were promoted:

- Games,
- Storytelling,
- Dance,
- Drama,
- Gardening
- Orientation on First Aid
- Identification and mapping of village resources, problems and solutions through application of the PRA/ PLA methodology
- Activities supporting income generation like nursery raising, development of nutri-gardens, handicraft-based activities, development of bio-manures, organic pest control measures etc.
- Celebration of days/ periods of significance to nature (5th June, Plantation Week etc.).

There are forward looking plans to integrate KKB in the development framework in the programme villages.

C.3 Community Interface & Elders' Council (An innovative approach to learn from the Elders)

As a part of the cross-cutting intervention, in 2024-25, AHEAD accentuated the community dialogue process and explored 'beyond the thematic domains' issues that are plaguing the community and contributing to pauperization. Since January 2025, innovative approach called 'elders' council' was put into practice to facilitate resilience building. The idea was to synergize knowledge of diverse generations, specifically the elders. Their experiential learning can be a grounding space for development initiatives. Through the Elder Council Meet started from January 2025, in the 25% of the targeted villages we have been able to motivate the marginalized village elders.

 Chief Executive Officer
AHEAD Initiatives

D. For the cross-cutting areas, one of the tools designed and employed is communication through performing art originating in the field.

D.1 Community-based 'Theatre' as a communication tool

Since September 2024, AHEAD has been working for development of people's theatre as a communication tool. 'Ashubha Sanket', a street play evolved through cocreation by the AHEAD team and by February 2025, 4 theatre groups involving a total of 46 women and 55 men aged 14 to 60 from these four regions were formed.

District	Block	Location	No. of participants (Male/Female)	Total
North 24 Parganas	Hingalganj	Jogeshgunj	11/ 24	35
Mayurbhanj	Kusumi	Solaipat	22/7	29
Mayurbhanj	Jasipur	Simlipal (Gudgudia)	9/8	17
Bankura	Onda	Nakaiguri	13 / 7	20
Total			55/46	101

Overall, 16 shows were organised, where 4560 people joined as spectators. For instigating reflective thinking on migration and associated complexities AHEAD has produced a short film name Kanai which was extensively used to initiate community dialogue on different aspects of voluntary/involuntary insecure migration.

Block	GP	Village	Community people involved
Hingalganj	Dulduli	Mahajan Para	100
Do	Gobindakati	Sreedharkati	400

E. Handicraft Initiative

The Handicraft project at Tantipara, Rajnaga block, Birbhum district evolved as a sequel to the 'after school' project in the area wherein 9 (nine) local artisans were initially trained on block printing and application of natural dyes to the Tussar silk products weaved by the local artisans. During the after-school intervention, as part of the Education Project implemented with CISU support, capacity of the trained artisans was developed, which contributed to enhancement of their income earning potential. As the intervention continued, there was a growing need to revive the moribund Tussar weaving practice in the area by bringing in the elements of environment sustainability and blending traditional knowledge and practice with advance design elements. Hence came the specific project.

During the period under review, AHEAD Initiative conducted a series of capacity building exercises for Tantipara Prakritik Tussar Kendra (TPTK) to build and strengthen the capacity of the personnel there on administration and accounts, natural dyes, organizational development, new techniques and designs, marketing and exhibition skills. Ms. Bodil Faber, one of the board members of iiINTERest, Denmark provided on the job training to the artisans in an intensive way on natural dyes, designs and techniques. There have been several opportunities for exposure of TPTK personnel to fairs and exhibitions, renowned design houses and several key stakeholders, including the district administration.

Beside the above as part of the project, 100+ girls got training on different kinds of embroideries in a regular fashion through 5 After Schools (multi short session skill building sessions) in 5 Sansad areas with help of local Community Resource Organizers (CROs) and Local Resource Persons (LRPs) a number of girls have emerged with extra-ordinary skills on embroidery. Fair Trade has chosen one core woman artisan from TPTK team to train and develop her as part of their "Social Transformation and Economic Empowerment of Women Artisans in India (STREE)" fellowship program.

All the efforts helped TPTK to make a turnover of approximately Rs.15.00 lakh during the financial year of 2024 – 2025.

The Oikko Brand of TPTK received considerable media coverage during the year under report. In solo exhibition with their products in Kolkata attracted Times of India and there was an excellent story in the paper (<https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/entertainment/bengali/movies/news/tatiparas-weaving-revolution-where-tradition-meets-sustainability/articleshow/114723881.cms>). Earlier a nationally reputed magazine named 'Civil Society' covered the entire story of Tantipara initiatives (<https://civilsocietyonline.com/>) and featured it as a cover story, tracing how TPTK grew and evolved. The online issue with the TPTK story got over 100,000 views.

A photoshoot session has been arranged to showcase the TPTK's products through a product digital catalogue that will help proactively approach other retailers and design houses. In this quarter TPTK launched a redesigned website named www.oikko.in. CISU also contacted AHEAD to develop content for 'Change Story' on their website in March 2025.
